Mission Statement

Committed to the principle of student self-determination in the shared governance of the university, the Associated Students of CSULB seeks to facilitate the achievement of students' educational objectives and life goals through programs, services and facilities that advocate student needs and interests, compel student representation in campus decision-making, and provide students with resources that they identify as necessary for their intellectual, social and physical development.

MOTTO

Keeping Students First

An Introduction to the Volunteer Guide

Are you interested in video production? Graphic design? The environment? Concerts and movies?

Then the Associated Students, Inc. at California State University, Long Beach has a fulfilling, fun and educational volunteer opportunity for you.

The ASI volunteer catalogue is designed to inform you about the many opportunities within ASI, position requirements and their responsibilities. Many of these opportunities offer class credit, and all of them are a fun way to get involved on campus.

While this guide notes which majors may be suited best for each position, none of the volunteer opportunities are reserved for specific majors—everyone is encouraged to volunteer.

APPLICATION PROCESS OVERVIEW

All applications are processed through BeachSync; however, some applications work differently than others.

- For “Year-round Volunteer Opportunities,” as their description states, these applications are open for interested students to apply to year-round. To start the application process and begin volunteering today, visit www.asicsulb.org/volunteer.
- For “Student Government: Non-elected & Appointed Positions,” these applications generally open at the end of each academic year and appointments to these offices are subject to the confirmation of the AS Senate. These positions will be posted on the ASI Student Government website at www.asicsulb.org/gov/vacancies.

From time to time, student government positions open up mid-semester, so it is important to check the student government website frequently in case you are looking for a specific role.

At the end of the day, volunteering with ASI is a fantastic opportunity to get started in the career of your choice. From community service to television broadcasting, ASI has an array of prospects suited especially for you.

Taking a look through the ASI volunteer catalogue is the first step to being involved. Find something that interests you and start making a difference today.

GO BEACH!

Year-Round Volunteer Opportunities

These positions are open throughout the year and can be applied to at any time. Managers for these various programs review applications frequently. So if you see something you may be interested in, apply!
