8. ADVOCACY/POLICY REPORTS

A. Information Item: AB540 and Undocumented Students

Events/Programming

- Advocacy Week with FUEL
  - Friday's screening has been changed to a TEDTALK to promote advocacy and activism
  - No Mas Bebés will be screened at a monthly documentary event in collaboration with FUEL
  - Monday will consist of Student Panel with myself, FUEL President Jesus Gonzalez, and Jessica Rios from the Dream Success Center
  - Wednesday will be a fun, more interactive "artistic advocacy"
  - Friday will be the TEDTALK and discussion

Advocacy/Policy

- I will be looking for students to interview for the UNDOCU Podcast.
  - Podcast will cover the different lives within the undocumented community.
  - The goal is to show how different life is for each person (DACA recipient, mixed status family, TPS recipient, and other individuals)
  - I will be working with Chief Ortiz and students from DIG en Espanol to bring about the project and have all voices heard.
- I am working on providing undocumented students with a form of financial assistance because not all COVID-19 funding was made available for undocumented people.

Quote or Fun Fact of the Week

- "Well-behaved women rarely make history."

B. Cultural Affairs

Events/Programming

- Planning of respect diversity week panel discussion with fellow commissioners. Reached out to Irene Sotelo, Dr. Claybrook, and Lauryn Westbrook
- Planning Meet The Commissioner

Advocacy/Policy

- Met with Dr. James Binnall regarding SR #2017–18 resolution. I will be following up this week after speaking with Chief diversity officer Ortiz.
- Spoke with Vice President Gonzalez and Senator Austin regarding introductory meeting with the black leadership council on creating resolutions to diversify the composition of our faculty and staff.

Quote or Fun Fact of the Week

- What counts in life is not the mere fact that we have lived; it is what difference we have made to the lives of others that will determine the significance of the life we lead. – Nelson Mandela

C. Information Item: Disability Affairs

*This item was stricken.

D. Information Item: LGBTIQ+ Affairs

Events/Programming

- Transgender Empowerment & Advocacy Constitution complete
- Next step is selecting officers & then registering through Student Life & Development
- 10/22 OUTober Panel: Experiences From the Binary & Beyond
- A panel of transgender, non-binary, and gender nonconforming students & faculty will speak about their experiences navigating gender in a world where the binary and gender roles are heavily enforced.
- 10/27 Respect Diversity Week Panel with fellow commissioners
- Panelists finalized
- 11/18 Transgender Day of Remembrance

Advocacy/Policy

- Waiting to hear back from SHS to meet with someone and discuss trans student health services

Other Business/Concerns

- LGBTQIA+ Climate Committee Meeting #2 on Friday. Will report back.

Quote or Fun Fact of the Week

- When we first saw our dog, siblings thought she was a boy so they named her "Rocky", but once they realized she was girl they quickly fixed it and named her "Roxy"

E. Information Item: Women and Gender Equity Affairs

Events/Programming

- Interview with Commissioner of LGBTQIA+ Affairs, Get the Vote Out. On 22 West Media Radio. Purpose is to encourage young people to vote.
- Meet the Commissioner, October 19th. Purpose is to connect with students and listen to their needs.
- Respect Diversity Panel, October 27th. I will be mediator for the event with Commissioner Jones.

Advocacy/Policy

- Working with Not Alone at the Beach, Shelley Erickson, create an extension to Title 9 for ASI leaders. It is important for student leaders to have the proper resources to help students who are experiencing dating or domestic violence.

Other Business/Concerns

- Met with Not Alone at the Beach, there has been an increase in Cyber stalking and revenge porn. A solution to this is more exposure for sexting consent, the Women and Gender Equity Center have prepared a campaign for sexting consent campaigns. All organizations should share as much as possible
- Instagram: csulb.wgec
- This month is Domestic Violence Awareness month

Quote or Fun Fact of the Week

- My favorite movie is Like Water for Chocolate, directed by Alfonso Arau. It was released in 1993 on my birthday, February 17th.
