5. REPORTS

A. Chair Report:

Magaña reported that she had volunteered during Week of Welcome and had facilitated half of the Latinx Cultural Welcome event.

Magaña and Venegas had met with ASI Senators Richie Kennedy and Jesus Gonzalez to discuss expanding the reach of the Basic Needs program to serve the needs of student athletes.

Magaña encouraged the committee to set definitive boundaries between their work and personal lives while working from home.

C. Management Report:

Huebner reported that the Student Recreation and Wellness Center (SRWC) had received new equipment, masks, and gaiters in anticipation for limited reopening.

Huebner demonstrated the new SRWC virtual tour.

Venegas reported that the Coffee Bean and Tea Leaf location in the University Student Union (USU) would be closed at least throughout the remainder of the fall semester due to reduced traffic because of COVID-19.

Programming for students quarantined in campus housing had received uncharacteristically low turnout.

The Beach Pantry would be collaborating with Long Beach Rotary Club to host a food and clothing drive on October 24, 2020.

Beach Pantry had received donations from Long Beach Baptist Church and the Lunch Bag Program.
